

5. This or any quantity of straw is not guaranteed and will have to be supplied within such time as may be intimated after the acceptance of the quotation. The stuff should be neatly stacked by the supplier.

6. The stuff should be of the crop of this season and should be quite good for feed to Farm Cattle, free from mould or moisture, etc.

7. The name of the successful contractor will be intimated in due course and the supply should commence within five days of the acceptance of the quotation.

8. The final acceptance of the quotation will rest with the Director of Agriculture in Mysore, Bangalore, who does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender or assign any reason whatsoever for the rejection of any tender.

9. The payments are subject to rules of elimination.

10. A deposit of Rs. 100 should be made by the successful tenderer and it will be retained during the period of contract and will be returned after due fulfilment of the terms of the contract.

11. Should the successful contractor fail to comply with any of the conditions stipulated above, his contract will be forthwith cancelled and money deposited will be forfeited to Government. Further, in the event of the successful contractor failing to fulfill his contract within the specified time the undermentioned reserves the right to purchase the required fodder elsewhere at the contractor's risk and expense and claim damages for dislocation of work or loss that may arise, but the contractor will have no right to participate in the profits, if any, in the event of such purchases.

12. The successful tenderer should execute a bond on stamped paper for due fulfilment of the terms of the contract.
